Certain politicians interested in the support of the "pseudiar institution," have endeavored to persuade the public that Mrs. Stowe's last work is artistically a failure, and that it has produced no profound impression on either side of the Alasatic. But the publishers are happy to state, that of the many hundreds of American notices which they have received, the vast majority have been decidedly favorable, most of these enthusiastic; and the sale. thus far, has greeceded that of any work of fiction ever published—the set, of two volumes each, being now in press.
SIXTY BIGHTH ROUSAND
In Eng'and, the success has been even more wonderful. The press there, with but one or two exceptions, acknowledge the genius and power of the author, and in terms of which any living writer might be proud; and during the twelve days succeeding is publication no fewer than
